Ellis Katz brings over 30 years of experience to his practice in the representation of school entities and municipalities in employment and labor matters. He guides clients on employee and student discipline issues, and he has extensive experience in collective bargaining, grievance and interest arbitration. He is also experienced in unfair labor practice cases, and Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board proceedings and has argued discrimination matters before the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. His experience before federal court includes litigation related to IDEA, Section 504, ADA and civil rights matters.

An authority on both private and public sector labor law, he has lectured widely and has been published in national and regional labor law journals. He has taught graduate classes in labor relations at Penn State University and he served as the Assistant Counsel for the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board from 1981 to 1983.
